DETAILED ACTION

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

3. Claims 11-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention; additionally under 35 U.S.C. 101 as the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Claim 11 (and thus also its dependents), as recited, is an improper hybrid of two of the four separate statutory classes of invention (method and apparatus). MPEP 2173.05(p) II.

4. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

5. Claims 1-2 and 3-10 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 1 of U.S. Patent No. 5,619,327.

Art Unit: 2877

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because it is notoriously well known that any measurement may be calibrated with known samples of known values. Further, it has been held that where the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, discovering the optimum or working ranges (e.g., claim 8) involves only routine skill in the art. In re Aller, 105 USPQ 233. Further as to claims 9-10, it has been held that providing automatic means (e.g., digital camera) to replace manual observation in accomplishing the same result, is of routine skill in the art.

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Greivenkamp, Jr. et al. (,562).
